

State of Connecticut
GENERAL ASSEMBLY
Commission on Children

Connecticut Residents Support Prevention

A Harris Public Opinion Survey for Research! America 2001

The first Harris poll in the nation on prevention found many Connecticut residents convinced of the importance of prevention programs for their communities.

How important are these health and prevention programs for your community?

The Connecticut Prevention Research Study was commissioned by Research! America and conducted by Harris Interactive in October and November 2001.